Let go of the complex and time-consuming tasks of managing COBRA.

For as little as $35 per month, SBIS will handle all matters related to your company's COBRA administration.

Learn more by contacting us at (800) 362-5461 or sbam.org/cobra.

Your COBRA Adminstration Team will:

- Communicate with your former employee on your behalf.
- Send initial Notification of COBRA Rights and Obligation letters to your company's insured employees & dependents.
- Send the Specific Qualifying Event Notification letters to all beneficiaries which includes plan options, enrollment forms, premium rates, and due dates.
- In compliance with the laws, we adjudicate eligibility accurately and consistently.
- Field all questions from your COBRA participants via email or our toll-free number.
- Create and send the monthly premium reminders, grace letters and handle the premium payment from all COBRA participants.
- Remit premiums weekly to the Blues or directly to your company on behalf of the participants, whichever is preferred.
- Expiration notices are sent to COBRA beneficiaries prior to the end of the 18th, 29th or 36th month of eligibility.
- Provide a monthly report of all COBRA activity such as who received COBRA notifications, who responded, and who is on the COBRA termination list (also available online).
- Research and monitor changes to COBRA regulations.
- Electronically scan and file all transactions so that you can demonstrate compliance.

As the Employer, you must notify your COBRA Coordinator of the following:

When employees or dependents are added to the plan.

When employees are terminated (voluntary or involuntary), or if there is a reduction of employee hours that may result in a qualifying event (loss of coverage)

Any changes made to your insurance program, including plan changes and rate renewals.

Any employee life event including death, marriage, divorce or birth of a child.

Employer Role & Responsibilities

You'll be assigned a COBRA Coordinator who will be the person that you'll notify of any changes within your plan including rate changes, employee termination or new hire, death, divorce, and any new dependents.

Simply fax or email the Enrollment/Change of Status (ECOS) form to your COBRA Coordinator along with our customized COBRA Cover Sheet. Your coordinator will determine if the event qualifies for COBRA. If so, they will send the necessary notifications within the allotted time in order for your company to stay compliant with the law.

If your company is enrolled in an SBAM-sponsored Blue Cross® Blue Shield® of Michigan or Blue Care Network plan and you use the SBAM secure Zix, email our billing administrator, TGG Solutions, will simultaneously receive a copy of your ECOS form and make any necessary billing and plan enrollment changes.

How To Enroll

Submit the COBRA Administration Group Enrollment Form and signed Contract, along with a census of your insured employees and their covered dependents including name, social security number, address, and date of birth.

Your assigned COBRA coordinator will need to know the plan and rate information for all of your insurance carriers, and if you currently have anyone enrolled in COBRA coverage.
